Intro: D

Verse:

D
Mammy sings wonderfully,
D
Lamenting melodies,
G
Then Daddy comes home from work,
Em F#M G
He falls in and goes berserk.

D
The priest calls around for tea,
D
He always seems so terribly lonely,
G
Talks of industrial school,
Em F#m G

As he looks at me so cruel.

```
On Paddy's Day,
                   F#M G
Well they marched in Amerikay.
On Paddy's Day
                   F#m
Well they danced down Cricklewood way
On Paddy's Day,
               Em
Well they sang around Botany Bay
         Em
On Paddy's Day,
               G G
         F#M
For my sanity I'll pray
Verse:
Da fought the Black and Tans,
So did our uncle Dan.
Then there was civil war,
     Em F#m
And we ne'er saw Dan anymore.
We all have to walk to Cobh.
A family of 13, both young and old.
Transport our poverty,
        F#m
To a room and a ditch cross the sea.
Chorus:
On Paddy's Day,
And they marched in Amerikay.
G Em
On Paddy's Day,
                   F#m
Well they danced down Cricklewood way
G Em
On Paddy's Day,
               F#m
Well they sang around Botany Bay.
G
         Em
On Paddy's Day,
              G G
          F#m
```

And my sanity I'll pray.
