D E D9 E Esus4
So greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy
So greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy

D E D9 E Esus4
Now they say the Celtic Tiger, in my home town,
D9 E Esus4
Brings jewels and crowns, picks you up off the ground,
D E
But the Celtic Tiger does two things,
D9 E Esus4
It brings you good luck or it eats you up for its supper,

It's the tale of two cities on the shamrock shore,
Please Sir can I have some more,
If you hear the Tiger roar, run for the door,
Cause if you are poor you'll be eaten for sure,
And that's how I know the poor have more taste than the rich,
And that's how I know the poor have better taste than the rich,

Hear the Celtic Tiger roar - I want more.
Hear the Celtic Tiger roar - I want more.

More, More

The fastest growing inflation rate in the world,
The cost of a run down house is absurd
This isn't any age for a low income wage,
Ask anyone who's locked in a cage
A couple with kids can't afford a place to live
Even if they have a good job,
We're being robbed by the builders and the fat cat government,
A league of greed and they don't even need for a thing.

It's a sin,
But it's the nature of the beast.
You'd better go and find a priest and confess,
Because your greed is gonna leave you soulless.

Hear the Celtic Tiger roar - I want more.
Here the Celtic Tiger roar - I want more.

More, More

Where we gonna live?, what we gonna do?,
We'll have to move in with the woman in the shoe.
They're driving us onto the streets,
While the fat cat in government cheats,
And always gets away with his crime,
A kid steals a jacket and does time.
Just look at the world around you.
Tell me why is there so much need?.
Because of greed.
Because of greed.

So greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy
So greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy
So greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy
So greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy, greedy

Hear the Celtic Tiger roar - I want more
(I am your God you'll see)
Hear the Celtic Tiger roar - I want more,
(I am your God you'll see)
More, More
